SUMMARY

25X1D 25X1D
25X1D

A small barracks area is located south of and across the Strvyazh River from the town of Khyrov (Figure 1). It consists of six general areas (Figures 2 and 3), a large vehicle and equipment maintenance park, a smaller motor park, a barracks area, a headquarters and administration area, a general storage area, and an explosives storage area. Hard surfaced roads provide access to the adjoining villages of Malaya Sushita and Bunkovichi and to the town of Khyrov where railroad connections are available.

The mounding in the general storage area indicates underground storage, probably ammunition or explosives. Coverage of [REDACTED] indicated construction in the small barracks area and the general construction areas. Coverage in [REDACTED] indicates this construction is complete. The area remains unchanged in other respects.

This installation was covered by [REDACTED] KEYHOLE missions, one in [REDACTED] and the other in [REDACTED]
